

As Thanksgiving and Christmas season is fast approaching, we turn our thoughts to inside projects.

Now that fall is here and the Thanksgiving and Christmas season is fast approaching, we turn our thoughts to inside projects. Can we get it all done before the holidays? Can other people we might have to hire to help us, be wedged in with all their clients? Only a professional space planner like Construction Designs pull your ideas and dreams within budget and without the stress.

Fall is the best time to even start a new house from scratch. The contractors are less busy and its easier for us to schedule them for estimates for you. Construction Designs usually tries to get at least 3 bids to give you a better idea of the quality and price of our different venders. We always have the information in order so were comparing apples to apples and then pick the one that best fits your tastes and budget.

Its not too late so call us today and lets start dreaming, designing and building.

Construction Designs and Space Planning for every season

Call Construction Designs 810 750-9327